

PEACE CONFERENCE

An intensive and continuous dialogue amongst different Religions is an important ingredient in promoting peace and harmony in the society.

One possibility is to exchange information on different important topics such as 'Establishing Peace in Society' and 'The Teachings of different Religions about Peace'.

It is a long tradition of the Ahmadiyya Muslim Jamaat to organise such 'PEACE CONFERENCES' regularly.

In these meetings speakers from different sections of society and religious representatives of various denominations deliver talks on the importance of peace and how to establish peace in society.

These programmes should serve the aim that every religion would come to know more about the opinions of others and thus a better atmosphere of love and understanding is developed.

We invite you heartily to this Peace Conference.
